

Brief information about the editor

Institute of Scientific Information for Social Sciences (INION) forms the base for the INION Publishing House, which includes the INION Printing-centre.

The INION Publishing House carries out publication, operative printing, marketing and advertising activities including those in the Internet.

Our periodical, serial and non-periodical publications are distributed all over Russia, CIS countries and abroad. We actively promote our scientific production at industry-specific exhibitions and book-fairs.

The INION Publishing House offers realization of editorial and drafting activities, issue and distribution of scientific papers, books and reviews of analytical, bibliographical and reference character. Among them are:
